Backgrounder

About Construction Career Collaborative (C3):

Construction Career Collaborative (C3) is an industry-led initiative focused on developing a safe, skilled, and sustainable craft workforce. C3 works to improve the safety, productivity, and career paths of construction workers through education, training, and community engagement. The Tool Supply Drive is part of C3's commitment to supporting new workers and ensuring they have the resources they need to succeed.

Goals and Objectives:

- Support New Workers: Provide essential tools to new craft workers to ensure they start their careers on the right foot.
- Community Engagement: Engage the community in supporting the future of the construction industry through donations and awareness.
- Sustainable Workforce: Contribute to the development of a skilled and sustainable workforce that benefits the entire industry.
